

JACOB BEADLES

New York, NY • (806) 891-3743 • jacobbeadles52@gmail.com

LinkedIn • Portfolio

EXPERIENCE

- Founder/Creator. Beadles Bad Luck Entertainment, Syracuse, NY. February 2026- Present
 - Founded an independent production company focused on original interview and digital content development • Develop, write, and produce an original Interview Comedy Improv series from concept to screen, managing all aspects of pre- and post-production • Manage all creative development, production planning, and brand direction as sole owner
- Creator. Insert Name Productions, Syracuse, NY. February 2026- Present
 - Portray a lead character in Roommates, a successful YouTube series, delivering consistent on-screen performances across episodes • Collaborate with the creative team to develop improv-driven character moments, contributing to the show's authentic comedic voice • Continue to collaborate with the production team on future creative projects
- Sports Contributor. lafbnetwork.com, Los Angeles, CA. October 2024- Present
 - Research and write articles covering NFL and College teams • Maintain team depth charts to support analysis and reporting
 - Develop NFL mock drafts for the Rams, Chargers, and Raiders, applying statistical analysis, scouting reports, and team needs assessments • Conduct background research on players, coaches, and organizations to ensure accuracy and credibility in reporting
- Internship. American High, Syracuse, NY. January 2026- April 2026
 - Provide Scriptment Coverage for American High, Hulu, and Jeremy Garelick • Receive college credit for the internship
 - Discuss plot, characters, and other aspects of potential features
- Classroom Facilitator. S.I. Newhouse School, Syracuse, NY. August 2025- May 2026
 - Help to operate audiovisual equipment, multimedia presentations, and other technology • Encourage student participation in group activities, lab sessions, and discussions • Track attendance and participation data to support instructors in assessing student engagement
- CuseNation Football Intern. 247 Sports, Syracuse, NY. August 2025- December 2025
 - Produce in-depth written content highlighting team performance trends, athlete profiles, and strategic game previews
 - Conduct on-site media coverage by attending press conferences, interviewing coaches and athletes, and integrating first-hand insights into reporting • Apply journalistic standards to develop timely, engaging articles that contribute to audience engagement and sports community discussions
- Radio Producer. Raymar Communication, Lubbock, TX. September 2024- June 2025
 - Produce live radio shows and manage broadcast timing • Report from press conferences and record audio • Edit podcasts to ensure sound quality and pacing • Write articles on sports and related topics

EDUCATION

- S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications; Syracuse University
Masters of Science: Television, Radio, and Film. May 2026
- College of Arts & Sciences: Texas A&M University
Bachelor of Science: Communications with a Minor in Sports Management. December 2022

SKILLS

- Technical: Microsoft Office, Google Workspace, Adobe Creative Cloud, Canva, WordPress, ClickUp, Frame.io
- Media Production: Play-by-Play Commentary, Podcast Editing, Radio Production, Script Writing
- Social Media: Twitter/X, Instagram, Threads, Facebook, TikTok

ACTIVITIES AND VOLUNTEER

- Create multiple blog posts for the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications
- Assist with writing/producing/acting in multiple projects throughout the Syracuse area
- Perform commercial voiceover across multiple genres including retail, PSA, narration and animation
- Take professional level photography of Syracuse Football for the Sports Media Center and the Newhouse
- Serve as a Personal Assistant for film productions in the Syracuse area
- Write movie and play reviews to be published for the Newhouse